Instructions:

1. The iRead Islamic Book is open to all Al-Ihsan Academy Sunday School students in the Pre-KG through 12th grades.
2. Students will have to read at least 1000 pages or 15 Islamic books to successfully complete this program.
3. Parents can borrow Islamic books from ISNS Library or from public library. Text books will NOT be considered as part of this program.
4. Pre-KG and KG students, who cannot read books, can read with parents. They can also watch Islamic DVD or CD which will be counted as one book.
5. Students will have to write a one page summary about what they learned from reading these books. We will ask students to read their summary or give a brief speech in Sunday school assembly.
6. Once finished reading the books, please drop this form to ISNS Library.
7. All the participants will be recognized and rewarded at the end of the school year ceremony day.
